Monday 24th February 2014

Dear Parents/Carers

On Thursday 6th March 2014 we are celebrating World Book Day.

Our theme this year will be 'my favourite book'. With this in mind, we are inviting the children to dress as their favourite book character on the day, and bring in their favourite book to talk about and share with their friends.

This is a fantastic opportunity to hear new stories, and be involved in activities that promote a love of books and reading. The activities during the day will encourage children's speaking and listening skills, as well as enjoying activities such as writing book reviews and participating in paired reading across the school.

We look forward to being totally engrossed in books for the day!

Yours sincerely
