Thursday 20th March 2014

Dear Parents/Carers

Due to the legal strike action called by the National Union of Teachers (NUT), Norwood School will be partially closed on Wednesday 26th March 2014.

Whilst teachers do not have to inform the school of their intention until the day of the action, we are able to share with you the intended position of the school.

On Wednesday 26th March 2014:

- Norwood School will be open as usual for children in year groups 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6.
- Norwood School will be closed for children in Year 2 and Reception.

There is legal requirement that all children in classes not affected by the strike action are present in school on Wednesday 26th March 2014. Should children be absent without good reason, their absence (in accordance with school and Local Authority policy) will be coded as 'unauthorised' and may result in the Local Authority Attendance Officer taking action.

I acknowledge the disruption that this legal strike action will inevitably cause; however, we have given as much advanced notice as possible/required.

Thank you for your on-going support.

Yours faithfully

Mrs D Reynolds
Head Teacher
