Tuesday 19th November 2013

Dear Children, Parents and Carers,

This term we are really enjoying learning all about fairy tales and traditional tales with a forest as the setting. The children have now learned about Little Red Riding Hood and The Gingerbread Man, and will begin talking about and exploring the story of Hansel and Gretel. To celebrate what the children have learned so far during this topic, and their culinary skills, we would like to invite you to a gingerbread taste testing session on Thursday 5th December, at 2.45-3.15pm.

During this time, the work that the children have produced during Little Red Riding Hood and The Gingerbread Man will be available for you to look at, as well as their freshly baked gingerbread to share with you!

If you are able to visit us to share the children's work, could you please fill in the reply slip below by Friday 29th November 2013.

Thank you for your continued support with the children's learning and understanding throughout this topic – children have been so keen to share books from home with forests as settings, and we have even shared books that children have written themselves. This home learning has been invaluable to the children, and has encouraged them to really think about the stories and characters, as well as further their love of books and reading.

Yours sincerely

Mrs L Burnham
