Dear Year 5 Parents/Carers,

As you will already be aware from the Year 5 Spring 1 website, Our Religion and Worldviews learning this term is around the Big Question 'What happens when we die?'

The unit explores the concept of death, including various beliefs and practices surrounding it. As you know, children are inquisitive, so this may lead to questions in class; we will deal with these sensitively. I want to reassure you that the safe space we have already established in class will enable the children to discuss and consider their ideas about their learning. It may be that your child comes home and wants to discuss their learning with you.

I will modify lessons based on pupil needs and emotional readiness. As always, the children can use the 'questions' box in our classroom if there is anything they want to ask confidentially.

Please contact the school office to make an appointment to speak to me directly if you would like discuss any recent bereavements or personal issues your child may be dealing with. Alternatively, you can email me via the school office email: office@norwoodschool.co.uk

Kind regards

Mrs Veneziano
