Dear Parents/Carers,

Show Racism the Red Card are running their annual competition, which gives young people from schools and other educational settings the opportunity to express their anti-racism ideas creatively with an original anti-racism theme. Norwood school council have decided that we will hold a competition, where the best entries are sent to Show Racism the Red Card. Please upload your entries to ClassDojo or hand them to your class teacher, with a deadline of Wednesday 28th February 2024. Some ideas that the school council children thought of include:

- Writing and performing a play script
- Writing a poem or story
- Designing posters
- T shirt / football / sports top designs
- Creating a short film
- Creating a piece of art

Kind regards
