Dear Parents/Carers

The Spring Term has been such a busy one with lots of events and activities packed into such a relatively small number of weeks. The children are really looking forward to their performance of Jungle Book on Thursday and we hope to see you there.

Mrs Cockerill, our Deputy Head Teacher has been on maternity leave and we are pleased to announce that she will return to her post from Monday 23rd March 2015. During this absence, Mrs Burnham and Mr Robertson, our two Acting Assistant Head Teachers, have successfully covered many of the roles and responsibilities. We would like to say a huge thank you to both Mrs Burnham and Mr Robertson for their hard work and dedication to Norwood School and fulfilling the roles as successfully as they have.

In light of the experience, skills, knowledge and disposition that Mrs Burnham has demonstrated in this acting role, Norwood School are proud to announce that we have now appointed her to the permanent post as Assistant Head Teacher. This promotion will take place with immediate effect.

Mr Robertson has been with Norwood for three years and through the support of the Leadership team and Governing Body, he has developed his skills during this time. He recently interviewed successfully for the post of Deputy Head Teacher at Gunthorpe Primary School with effect from September 2015. Mr Robertson will revert back to his role as KS2 Phase leader for the duration of the Summer term.

We are proud that our commitment to the professional development of our staff has led to the promotion of Mrs Burnham and Mr Robertson and I am sure that they will thrive in their newly appointed roles.

Mr Alletson joined Norwood as an NQT in September 2013 and has worked in our Reception class setting. He recently has secured a position at Gunthorpe Primary School, a two form entry school, as he would like his career progression to be working in a larger EYFS team.

Norwood continually strives to ensure that the adults working with your children are the very best and as such we have already conducted a round of interviews. We are pleased to share with our community that we have successfully appointed Ms Turner-Johnson to join our teaching team from September 2015.

We look forward to continuing to work in partnership with our parents/carers.

Yours faithfully

Mrs D Reynolds
Head Teacher
