Dear Parents/Carers,

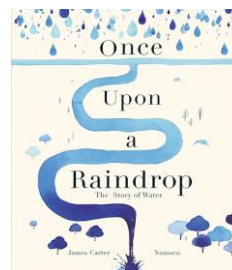

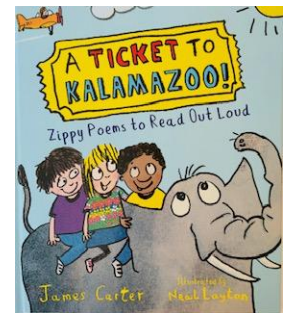

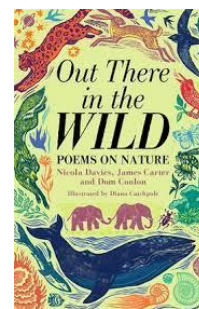

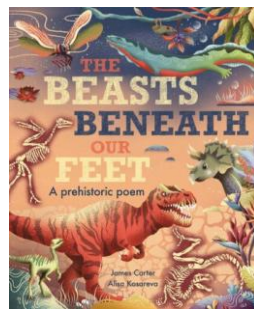

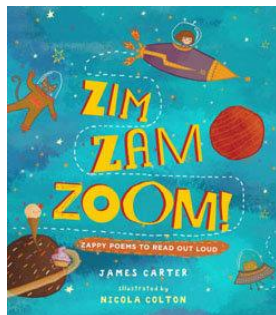

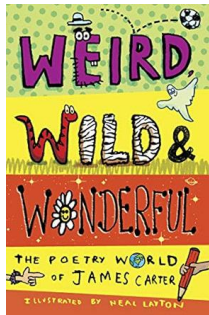

James Carter, poet, is coming to Norwood on Thursday 3rd July. He will spend time with each of the classes, sharing his poetry and teaching the children to write their own poem ready for a finale of poems at the end of the day.

James has written some incredible poetry, with several of his books in our very own library.

James is happy to sign books on the day of his visit but he will not have any books to purchase on the day. If you would like James to sign a book for your child, please purchase one from a bookshop of your choice and bring it to school on the day of his visit. We will be asking James to sign our library copies and all of the children will be able to share these when they visit the library.

Below are some of the books James Carter has written. His website is full of his poems if you would like to read or listen to any. <https://www.jamescarterpoet.co.uk/>

We look forward to a wonderful day, celebrating poetry!

Kind regards
