

NEW English Class

Improve your English skills and help your children with their homework at our FREE classes

Do you need help with practical English skills to help you gain confidence and improve your job prospects?

Would you like to be able to help your children with their homework questions?

At the end of this course you will achieve a nationally recognised qualification which is a progression towards GCSE.

There will be classes available for various levels and will include:

- Reading Skills
- Writing a range of documents
- Communicating effectively

The course will run from 10am-12pm on Fridays starting in September at Honeyhill Children's Centre

If you are interested please contact Honeyhill Children's Centre on 01733 576611 or Diane Holroyd on 01733 863069
