Tuesday 23rd February 2016

Dear Parents/Carers

On Thursday 3rd March 2016 we are celebrating World Book Day.

Our theme this year will be Festival of Imagination. With this in mind, we are inviting the children to dress in their most unusual and imaginative clothing for the day, for example a wonderfully clashing combination of bright colours or patterns! You could even design your own t-shirt to wear for the day. Of course, if your child wishes to dress as their favourite book character, they can.

Throughout the day we will provide opportunities to hear new stories, and be involved in activities that promote a love of books and reading. The activities during the day will encourage children's speaking and listening skills, as well as enjoying books and reading for pleasure.

We are very pleased to welcome to Norwood author Adrian Townsend, writer of such books as Gran's Gang and Grandad's Gang. He will be speaking to the whole school during the afternoon about the process of becoming an author, and how wonderful the imagination can be.

On Friday 4th March 2016 from 3pm, Mr Townsend will be selling his books in school, so if you would like to purchase one of his amazing children's books, please come to the office from this time.

We look forward to a day filled with imagination and new reading experiences!

Yours sincerely
